

Lehigh University

Lehigh Preserve

---

Volume 37 - The New Malaysia (2019)

Perspectives on Business and Economics

---

1-1-2019

Contributors

Lehigh University

Follow this and additional works at: <https://preserve.lehigh.edu/perspectives-v37>

---

Recommended Citation

Lehigh University, "Contributors" (2019). Volume 37 - The New Malaysia (2019). 15.
<https://preserve.lehigh.edu/perspectives-v37/15>

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the Perspectives on Business and Economics at Lehigh Preserve. It has been accepted for inclusion in Volume 37 - The New Malaysia (2019) by an authorized administrator of Lehigh Preserve. For more information, please contact preserve@lehigh.edu.

CONTRIBUTORS

EMILY E. BUELL graduated with highest honors from Lehigh University in 2019 with a B.S. in economics and finance and a minor in probability and statistics. During her undergraduate career, she was a calculus tutor for the Center of Academic Success, a volunteer tutor at the local middle school with America Reads/Counts, and a member of Beta Gamma Sigma, an honor society for international business. Emily has previously worked at WOOD & Company, emerging Europe's leading investment bank, as an equity research intern in the Prague, Czech Republic, office; and at the Boeing Company as a finance intern. She is currently pursuing her master's degree in applied economics at Lehigh as a President's Scholar.

DOMINICK J. FALCON graduated with highest honors from Lehigh University in 2019 with a B.S. in biochemistry and a minor in health, medicine, and society. At Lehigh, Dominick was the president of Orthodox Christian Fellowship and participated in the Lehigh University Choir and the Glee Club. He also was an active member in the Bad Company, Bhangra, and Tumbao dance teams. During the summers, Dominick participated in the Iacocca International Internship in Luxembourg to perform cell research in the field of allergy and immunology and also interned at an orphanage in Tijuana, Mexico, where he built houses and helped manage the ranch. Dominick is pursuing his M.D. at Harvard Medical School.

CALVIN W. FLOYD is pursuing dual B.S. degrees in behavioral neuroscience and psychology with a minor in health, medicine, and society. He volunteers at the local hospital and is a nationally registered EMT. Calvin is a member of the Phi Sigma Pi national honor fraternity, having served as fundraising and scholarship chairs. He spent the past year as an admissions fellow and a peer scholar in the College of Arts and Sciences. Calvin has a passion for vocal arts and has participated in Lehigh's Choir, Glee Club, and Melismatics a capella group with several executive positions. He is currently spending a fifth year as a President's Scholar to complete his dual degree as he looks forward to attending medical school.

HUILAI GU graduated with high honors from Lehigh University with a B.S. in chemical engineering and finance in the Integrated Business and Engineering (IBE) program. At Lehigh, she served as president of the Lehigh chapter of U.S. Association for Energy Economics (USAEE) and vice president of the IBE Council. Huilai was a recipient of the Levy International Scholarship and the Tau Beta Pi Scholarship and a member of the Latin and Bhangra dance teams. During summers, she interned with Deloitte in Czech Republic, conducted biomolecular simulation research at Lehigh, and participated in USAEE case competitions. Huilai has launched her career as an energy analyst at Charles River Associates in Boston; she aspires to facilitate the global transition from conventional to renewable energy.

PHILLIP HERNANDEZ graduated with high honors from Lehigh University with a B.S. in finance and minors in Spanish and Latin American studies. At Lehigh, Phillip was a portfolio manager on the Dreyfus Portfolio and an industry researcher for the Office of Economic Engagement. Additionally, he served as vice president of the Association of Latino Professionals for America and was a member on the College of Business Senior Board. During the summers, Phillip interned in New York City at global accounting firm, PricewaterhouseCoopers, and at Alcentra, a global high-yield debt management firm. Phillip began his career soon after graduation at Alcentra as a portfolio analyst.

MUSA S. JAMSHED graduated with high honors from Lehigh University with a B.S. in computer science and business. He also explored journalism through The Brown and White, Lehigh's collegiate newspaper, serving as sports editor, editorial pages editor, data/graphics editor, and investigative editor. In 2017, Musa won a College Media Association Pinnacle award for one of the nation's top profiles. Growing up, he was a top 50 national chess player in his age cohort and has six years' experience teaching chess to children. Musa has moved from his hometown of New York City to San Francisco, where he works for Adobe's marketing group investigating and analyzing customer behavior and success. Musa's dream is to one day work at data journalism website FiveThirtyEight.

GRACE H. LIN graduated with high honors from Lehigh University in 2019 with a double major in English and political science, completing a thesis for each major to obtain honors, and a minor in creative writing. She was captain of Lehigh's varsity women's tennis team and served as a representative on the Student-Athlete Council. Grace also was a head resident assistant in university housing, peer writing tutor, and student senator. As an Iacocca International Intern in summer 2018, Grace worked in human resources at National Instruments in Shanghai. She enjoys playing piano, baking, reading, and traveling. Following graduation, Grace joined the legal world and currently works in the recruiting department at a law firm in San Francisco.

HILLARY (ZHENYANG) NI graduated with high honors from Lehigh University in 2018 with a B.S. in accounting and finance and a minor in psychology. At Lehigh, Hillary served as a peer mentor for first-year business students, on the class council in the College of Business, and for the Lehigh Liners alumni outreach program. She spent summers working on international mergers and acquisitions for PricewaterhouseCoopers in Frankfurt, Germany, as well as interning with Deloitte in Hong Kong. Hillary is pursuing her graduate degree as a President's Scholar. She will soon join Ernst & Young's Financial Services Organization as an auditor for its New York market to pursue her Certified Public Accountant license.

JULIET PANICHELLA graduated with high honors with a B.S. in the Integrated Business and Engineering honors program, B.S. in chemical engineering, and minor in biology in 2018. During her time at Lehigh, she did research in biofilm formation, served on the executive board for the Emergency Medical Services squad, volunteered at St. Luke's Hospital, guided first-year students in orientation, and was an athlete in gymnastics and pole vaulting. She studied traditional Chinese medicine as a Tauck Scholar in Shanghai, China, in the summer of 2017, and Western medicine as an Atlantis Fellow in Almansa, Spain, in the summer of 2016. She was a Class of 1904 scholarship winner. Juliet is pursuing her M.D. and M.B.A. at the Lewis Katz School of Medicine at Temple University.

DANIELLE T. SATO graduated with highest honors from Lehigh University in 2019 with a dual degree in biology and health, medicine, and society and a minor in women, gender, and sexuality studies. At Lehigh, she was a staff member at the Pride Center for Sexual Orientation and Gender Diversity and the music director of her cappella group, The Echoes. In-between hiking and going to the beach, she spent summers in her home state of Hawai'i, participating in work and research related to her future goal of becoming a physician. As a President's Scholar, Danielle is currently pursuing a master's degree in sociology with the Community Fellows program.

MALCOLM B. SCOBELL graduated with highest honors from Lehigh University in 2019 with a B.S. in environmental engineering and global studies in the Integrated Degree in Engineering, Arts and Sciences honors program. As an undergraduate, Malcolm was awarded an Iacocca International Internship to work on a water quality project for the University of Georgia in Monteverde, Costa Rica; conducted two research projects focusing on biosand filtration and watershed flooding damages; served as president of the Lehigh chapter of the American Academy of Environmental Engineers and Scientists; and was a head resident assistant with student housing. Currently, Malcolm is a President's Scholar at Lehigh pursuing his master's degree in civil engineering/water resources.

CAROLINE F. WEISSTUCH graduated with honors from Lehigh University in 2019 with a B.S. in environmental engineering and political science in the Integrated Degree in Engineering, Arts and Sciences honors program. While at Lehigh, Caroline was the Class of 2019 senior class gift coordinator, an admissions tour guide, a member of the Association of Student Alumni, and events director for the Kappa Alpha Theta women's fraternity. She also was heavily involved in the Lehigh's Finest Step Team, where she was able to pursue her passion for dance. Caroline has begun her professional career at Cushman & Wakefield in their Global Occupier Services Professional Real Estate Program in New York City.