For nearly a century, the Lehigh University Glee Club was the only choral group at Lehigh. When Lehigh became coed in the 70s, the mixed University Choir replaced the all-male Glee Club. In 2005, the men of the University Choir decided that the tradition of male singing should be renewed and carried on at a higher level. Thus, the Glee Club was reinstated after a 30-year absence. The Lehigh University Glee Club performs under the direction of Dr. Steven Sametz, professor of music and director of choral activities at Lehigh University and artistic director of The Princeton Singers. His composition, "I Have Had Singing" was performed by the National Youth Choir of Scotland at the Royal Albert Hall in London this July during the highly prestigious BBC Proms. The 111-year-old event is considered to be the world's greatest classical music festival. His "in time of" appears on Chanticleer's Grammy

Award-winning CD, The Colors of Love. His works have been performed throughout the U.S. and Canada, at the Tanglewood and Ravinia festivals, and in Europe at the Salzburg and Schleswig-Holstein Festivals. Recent guest conducting appearances include the Taipei Philharmonic Foundation, the Berkshire Music Festival, the New York Chamber Symphony and the Netherlands Radio Choir. His work may also be heard on six other Chanticleer CDs as well as on CDs by the Lehigh University Choir and Choral Arts, and The Princeton Singers. Sametz has received both the Composer Fellowship and Composer Consortium grants from the National Endowment for the Arts. He holds degrees from Yale University, the University of Wisconsin-Madison and the Hochschule für Musik und darstellende Kunst in Frankfurt, Germany.
