

DELAWARE BRIDGE AND SHOWING PHILLIPSBURG, N. J., FROM EASTON, PA.

26566

PC 0270

DELAWARE BRIDGE AND SHOWING PHILLIPSBURG N. J.
FROM EASTON, PA.

This structure replaces a covered wooden bridge of three spans, each about 155 feet clear, supported by two hollow piers, 35 feet by 55 feet and two abutments. Built in 1895, at time of removal being next to the oldest, if not the oldest wooden highway Bridge in the U. S. Dimensions of present bridge a cantilever bridge 550 feet between end piers, two shore arms, 125 feet each, suspended span 50 feet, Trusses 36 feet, centers extreme width 56 feet 8 in., material med. steel, built 1895, elevation of Cap Stone on pier 187-87 feet above mean tide at Sandy Hook.

POST CARD

THIS SPACE FOR ADDRESS ONLY.

W
M
H
K
A
M
P

PUBLISHED BY LEO MEYER, OFFICE 32 BIXLER BLDG., EASTON, PA.

Best Wishes to you
ALL
G. H. S.

Mrs. A. B. Perkins
Waterford,
Conn.